Roman amphitheatres

The Roman stadiums of Europe have proved very versatile. The amphitheatre of Arles, for example, was converted first into a 18 port, then into a residential area and finally into an arena where spectators could watch 19 jousts. Meanwhile, the arena in Verona, one of the oldest Roman amphitheatres, is famous today as a venue where 20 opera is performed. The site of Lucca's amphitheatre has also been used for many purposes over the centuries, including the storage of 21 flour. It is now a market square with 22 designed and homes incorporated into the remains of the Roman amphitheatre. 23 shops
