INTRODUCTION

The issues such as poverty, human rights abuses, terrorism, etc. are rampant in society paved the way for tremendous changes in literature. Climate change, Global warming and Globalization of the world economy seem to have affected the commerce entities to conduct operational practices. These operational practices consequently impinge on societal perception and responsibilities. This culminated into society's expectations towards corporate entities. Thus, the corporate world has moved from mere profit making models to a socially responsible one where the companies tend to exercise a sense of responsibility and accountability for economic, social and environmental impact of their business through their actions and decisions.

Hence, Dyandeep Shikshan Prasarak Mandal's Dr. Khatri Mahavidyalaya, Tukum, Chandrapur and Sevadal Education Society's Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur have organized this Two Days National E-Conference on 'Current Dimensions in Social Science and Commerce-2022' to through light on various dimension in the discipline of Social Science and Commerce.

THE PROGRAMME

The conference aimed at bringing the views of experts, researchers, academicians, scholars and students to the fore with the purpose of bringing substantial positive change in the social scenario. The conference also aimed at creating awareness amongst corporates, NGOs, civic and government bodies regarding the value and importance of social responsibility so as to bridge the gap between the disadvantaged and the privileged segments of society. Sevadal Education Society's Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur and Dr. Khatri Mahavidyalaya, Tukum, Chandrapur have organized this Two Days National E-Conference on 'Current Dimensions in Social Science and Commerce-2022' on 25th & 26th February, 2022.

TECHNICAL SESSION I : INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The inaugural function of the conference was followed by the first technical session. The topic of the first technical session was ‘Intellectual Property Rights’. The resource person for this technical session was Dr. Vinayak M. Govilkar, Chartered Accountant, Nashik and Former Principal, BKY College of Commerce, Nashik. He shared his in-depth knowledge on the topic ‘A Primer on Intellectual Property Rights’.

At the outset of his presentation, Dr. Govilkar threw light on the theme of Intellectual Property Rights. He mentioned that human beings have four unique things. They are the mind, intellect, memory and ability to work through which human beings could discover the things. He said that the inventions make human life better, safe and comfortable. Inventions made by human beings involve their intellect and thus, the Intellectual Property Rights are an outcome of their investment of time, energy and money. Thus, the Intellectual Property Rights is a credit for the work on an individual.

He further mentioned that the Intellectual Property Rights are the rights bestowed upon by the law of the land. There are different Acts for different types of IPRs. The inventor has disclose his invention and has to apply for the right and has to comply the procedural formalities. The Intellectual Property Rights are for specific period and the person other than IPR is excluded from using the invention. The Intellectual Property Rights include copyright and other related rights, trademarks including service marks, geographical indications including appellations of origin, industrial designs, patents including the protection of new varieties of plants, layout designs of integrated circuits and undisclosed information including trade secrets and test data.

In his address to the audiences, Dr. Govilkar stated that the Intellectual Property Rights bestow the IPR holder the right to use, produce, import, sale and distribute, right to assign and license, right to surrender, right to additions, right in case of infringements and the right to apply for protection in other countries.

He concluded his address with the remark that the Intellectual Property Right is a best source of recognition of one’s work through which an IPR holder can draw the benefits of licensing, sale and merchandizing. The session was compared by Mr. S. R. Lonbale and Dr. V. V. Lade proposed vote of thanks.

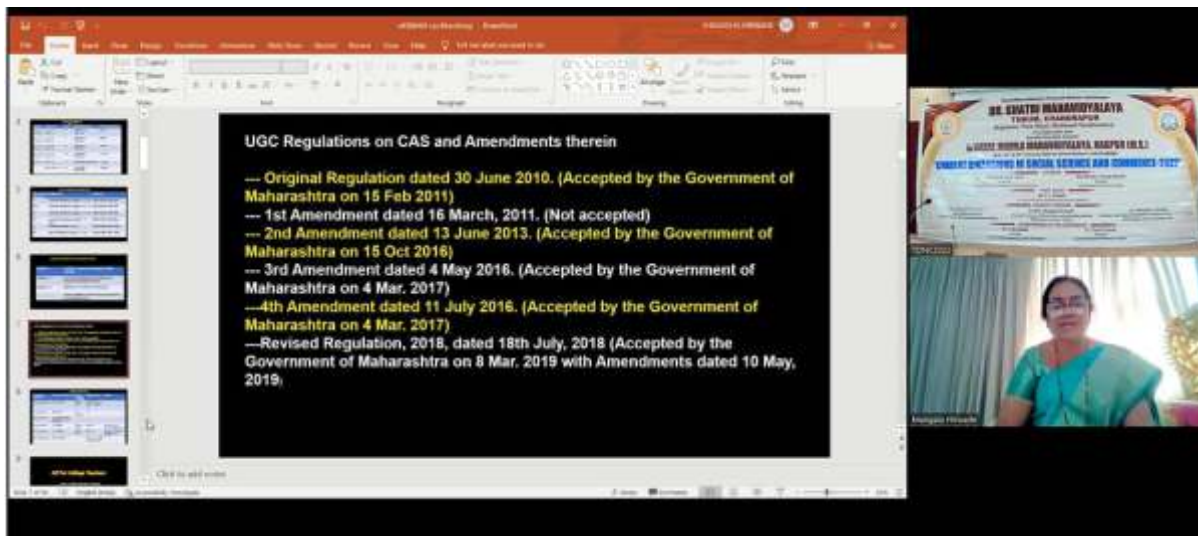

TECHNICAL SESSION II : CAREER ADVANCEMENT SCHEME AS PER UGC GUIDELINES

Dr. Mrs. Mangala Hirwade, Associate Professor, PGTD of Library and Information Science, RTM Nagpur University, Nagpur was the key-note speaker for second technical session of the first day of the national conference on ‘Current Dimensions in Social Science and Commerce-2022’. She addressed the participants on a very important topic, ‘Career Advancement Schemes as per UGC guidelines’.

She initiated her presentation with various stages for career advancement of teachers for Co-curricular, Extension and Professional Development Related Activities and for Research and Academic Contributions. She talked about various UGC Regulations on CAS and the Amendments in these regulations. She also talked on credit scheme for research contribution such as Journals, books, research projects, research guidance and invited lectures, presentations in conferences and symposia and Faculty Development Programmes.

She also threw light on new UGC guidelines for Career Advancement Scheme for the teachers.

The session was compared by Dr. Girish Kawale and Dr. S. G. Rokade proposed vote of thanks.
