1st September 2018: Women's Equality Day

Gender is the state of equal ease of access to the resources and opportunities regardless of sex. Though India has achieved a great success in every field of life still it has a issue of gender discrimination. To create awareness on this issue Women's Equality Day was celebrated on 1st September 2018. On this occasion a special lecture of Mrs. Kavita Agarwal Motivational Speaker, Nagpur was organized. She explained gender equality means that the different behaviour, aspirations and needs of women and men are considered, valued and favoured equally. It does not mean that women and men have to become the same, but that their rights, responsibilities and opportunities will not depend on whether they are born male or female. She told about the rights mentioned in the constitution and discussed how gender equality is intrinsically linked to sustainable development and to the realization of human rights for all. Total 65 students attended the lecture.

1st December 2018: World Aids Day

A guest lecture was organised by Parents Teacher Association on the eve of World AIDS Day. This day takes place on 1st December each year. Its an oppurtunity for people worldwide to unite in the fight against HIV. As the students were busy with their university exams the lecture was conducted on 26th February 2019 at 11.00 am. The guest speaker was Dr (Mrs) Jyoti Niswade, Associate Professor, in Social work, Matru Seva Sangh, Nagpur. The topic of the lecture was "Gender Patriarchy and violence against women." The programme started by welcoming the guest. Dr (Mrs) P. P.Chahande, convenor of PTA compared the programme. Dr (Mrs) S, D.Bhojar welcomed the guest speaker with a floral bouquet. She explained the students about the fundamental rights guaranted in the constitution of India on gender equality. The main objective about the guest lecture was on how to prevent and protect women against sexual harassment at workplace and to ensure effective redressal of complaints of sexual harassment. She explained the students the meaning of Patriarchy which is a social system in which men hold primary power and predominate in roles of political leadership, social privilege and control of property. She also told the students about power differences between men and women. The students were satisfied with the lecture.

10th December 2018: Human Rights Day

On the occasion of International Human Rights Day- 10th December, Prof. Reeta Dandekar, Head participated in the talk organized by India Peace Centre, Nagpur as a part of MOU signed between Department of Political Science of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur and India Peace Centre, Nagpur. Renowned Social Activists participated in this programme. All the participants unanimously accepted the need to be united against the violation of human rights at every field so that human rights can be protected.
