Marathi Raj Bhasha Divas : 27th February 2021

Special Lecture on Communication Skill in Marathi Language:

Communication is the transmission of ideas and information with the purpose of better understanding one another. Good communication skills are essential to allow others and yourself to understand information more accurately and quickly. In contrast, poor communication skills lead to frequent misunderstanding and frustration. Considering this fact Co-curricular and cultural committee and the department of Marathi organized a Special lecture on 'communication skill in Marathi language' on the occasion of Marathi Raj Bhasha divas.

Marathi Raj Bhasha divas is celebrated on February '27' every year across the Indian States of Maharashtra and Goa. This day is regulated by the State Government. It is celebrated on Birthday of eminent Marathi Poet Kusumagraj. His real name was Vishnu Vaman Shirwadkar. He was a renowned poet, playwright, novelist and short storywriter, who wrote of freedom, justice and emancipation of deprived. On this occasion Cultural committee and Department of Marathi jointly organized a program on 'Marathi Bhashetil Sanvad Koushalye'. On this occasion an Online Lecture by Dr. Vinod Jiwantare, Assi. Professor & Head, Dpt. of Marathi, R.S.Mundle Dharampeth College, Nagpur was organized. Program was scheduled on 27th February 2021 at 11.00 am on Zoom platform.
