Best Practices of the Institution

Best Practice No. III

a) Title of Practice: Best Teacher Award in Environmental Studies.

b) Goal:

- To accelerate the mission of fostering scientific culture among the students.
- To encourage the development of environmental temperament.
- To acknowledge and appreciate the efforts made by the teacher in this field.
- To promote environmental education awareness in all sections of the society.

c) Context: The role of a teacher in promoting interest and knowledge about ecosystem & environment is prominent. A teacher can promote environmental education training material through existing educational research institute. He is believed to ensure training and manpower development for Environmental education, awareness and training. A teacher can mobilize people's participation for preservation and conservation of environment. To encourage such efforts Science Association of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya has initiated 'The Best Teacher Award in Environmental Studies' since 2010.

d) The Practice: To appreciate the efforts of a teacher in Environmental Education, Science Association of the college in association with S.Chand and Company Pvt. Ltd, Nagpur started the prestigious Best Teacher Award in 2010. For this the nominations are invited from various colleges affiliated to Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur. Selection of the best teacher from the received nominations is done after scrutinizing the Curriculum vitae by a selection committee which includes the experts in the respective fields. A grand felicitation function is organized at the auditorium of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya. Eminent personalities, academicians are invited as a Chief Guest, Guest of honour for the felicitation programme. Vice Chancellors, Directors of Research Institutes, Renowned Scientists have honoured us with their gracious presence. General Manager of S.Chand Company, Nagpur sponsored the award and also graced the function. President of Sevadal Education Society and Principal of the college always graced the dais and large number of invitees and students were present on the occasion.

e) Evidence of Success:

- 1) S. Chand and Company, a reputed name in the field of publications, came forward for sponsoring the award.
- 2) Large number of teachers has applied for the prestigious award.
- 3) Grand Felicitation programme motivated the participant teachers and students for working in Environment awareness programmes.

g) Problems Encountered:

- 1) Owing to time constraint generated by semester pattern, organization of felicitation becomes slightly difficult.

2) The rule framed for eligibility that is “A teacher filing nomination has to be affiliated to RTM Nagpur University” puts slight declining response compared to initial years.
