Best Practices of the Institution

Best Practice No.VI

a) Title of Practice: Cycle Club

b) Goal:

- To provide the cycling facility to the students particularly underprivileged students coming from nearby villages.
- To promote the Eco-friendly lifestyle.
- To make the environment pollution free.

c) Context: Many students in Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya are coming from nearby villages. They have to depend on the public transport for their individual college work. Many of them are from very poor families. Considering this fact college has decided to form a Cycle Club for the students as well as staff. Students can avail the cycle facility for their nearby work. This activity also aims at promoting the Eco-friendly lifestyle to reduce the environment pollution.

d) The Practice: Cycle Club committee was formed by Hon'ble Principal. Dr. (Mrs) Shubhada Mandaogade, Convenor and other two members Dr.(Mrs.) A.S. Mahakalkar and Dr.(Mrs.) P.P.Chahande were shouldered this responsibility. The inauguration of Cycle club was held on 30th December 2019 in the college premises. Hon'ble Shri Sanjayji Shende, President, Sevadal Education Society and Hon'ble Principal Prof Pravin Charde were present on this occasion. Some staff members donated the cycle to help and support this activity. Importance of cycling for overall health and fitness and also its importance for reducing the air pollution was mentioned by Hon'ble President. He appealed the students to avail this facility for their needs.

e) Evidence of Success: Staff members donated their cycle for this noble cause. Students are also availing this facility for their nearby work. Positive feedback was given by the students.

f) Problems Encountered: As this activity is recently launched it will take time to be a regular practice for the students and staff also.
