Report on Old Age Home Maheshwar Vanprasthashram, Bahadura village, Nagpur.

In the session 2024-2025, the Department of Human Development organized an Educational visit to Maheshwar Vanprasthashram, Bahadura village, Nagpur. The B.Sc. IInd (Sem.III) year Students visited on 23 Jan.2025.Total Ten students participated in this visit. An old age home dedicated to providing care and support to senior citizens. The visit aimed to understand the lives of the elderly through a detailed survey and to extend warmth and kindness as representatives of our institution.

OBJECTIVES

The primary purpose of the visit was:

1. To assess the overall well-being of the elderly residing in the old age home.
2. To survey their health, financial security, emotional stability, social interactions, and holistic lifestyle.
3. To foster a connection between students and senior citizens

Activities Conducted:-

The visit commenced at 12:30 PM. Upon arrival, our students were warmly welcomed by the staff and residents. The activities carried out during the visit included:

1. Survey:

Students conducted a detailed survey of the residents to understand their:

Health: General physical health, access to medical facilities, and chronic health conditions. Finances: Financial stability, dependency, and any challenges related to managing expenses. Emotional Well-being: Levels of happiness, loneliness, and the presence of support systems. Social Well-being: Their interactions within the community, involvement in activities, and visits from family or friends. Holistic Lifestyle: The quality of food, opportunities for spiritual or recreational activities, and overall satisfaction with life at the ashram.

2. Interaction: Students engaged in conversations with the residents, listened to their life stories, and shared positive and encouraging words.

Concluding Gesture:-

As a token of love and respect, the students distributed various fresh fruits to the residents. This small gesture was deeply appreciated and brought smiles to the faces of the elderly. The visit concluded at 3:00 PM after an enriching and emotional interaction with the residents.

Conclusion:-

The visit to Maheshwar Vanprasthashram was a deeply insightful experience for the students. It provided a platform to understand the challenges and joys of the elderly in such facilities. The survey outcomes will be analyzed further for academic purposes and to suggest ways to improve the lives of the elderly. The department expresses its gratitude to the management of Maheshwar Vanprasthashram for their cooperation and to the students for their sincere efforts in making the visit meaningful.
