REPORT ON EXHIBITION: सुई धागा

The Department of Textile and Clothing, in collaboration with the Community College of Fashion Designing, organized a vibrant and creative exhibition and sale titled सुई धागा on 11th and 12th March 2025 at Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Sakardara, Nagpur. Total Thirty students participated in Exhibition. The exhibition was open from 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM on both days and was a showcase of talent, creativity, and entrepreneurship among students. The event was inaugurated on 11th March 2025 at 11:00 am. Hon'ble President, Sevadal Shikshan Sanstha Mr. Sanjayji Shende and Dr. Mrs. N. S. Dhoble, Principal of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur.

AIM AND OBJECTIVE:

- To provide a professional platform for students to showcase their creative and technical skills in Textile and fashion design.
- To Enhance Entrepreneurial skills among the students.

A total of 15 stalls were displayed at the Exhibition:

- Seven stalls were presented by the Department of Textile and Clothing.
- Six stalls were managed by the Community College of Fashion Designing.
- One stall was set up by the Alumni of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya.

Among the Seven Departmental stalls, students of B.Sc. Home Science, (Department of Textile and Clothing) Semesters IV and VI, took charge and displayed an impressive range of handcrafted items and presented a rich variety of products such as:

- Creative articles made from recycled cardboard boxes.
- Beautifully hand-painted T-shirts.
- Trendy cord sets for women.
- Traditional door hangings (toran).
- Elegant kurtis for women.
- Stylish purses made from denim jeans, tie and dye cloth, sequin fabrics, and traditional Khan cloth.
- Exquisite representations of Indian art forms including Warli (Maharashtra), Madhubani (Bihar), and Kalamkari (Karnataka and Tamil Nadu), which were hand-painted on wall hangings, canvas paintings, and pen stands.
- Beautiful bookmarks decorated with intricate hand embroidery patterns.
- Attractive table runners, made using diverse fabrics and innovative designs.
- Variety of pillow covers made of cotton with tie and dye, khan cloth, and velvet fabric.

A special highlight of the exhibition was the festive piece – a beautifully crafted Gudi Vastra, created in celebration of the upcoming Gudi Padwa festival, which caught the attention of many visitors. The सुई धागा exhibition was an enriching experience for both participants and visitors. It not only offered students a platform to showcase their creative skills but also encouraged practical learning, innovation, and entrepreneurial spirit. The event received overwhelming appreciation from faculty, guests, and the public, making it a grand success. The exhibition attracted a large number of visitors, including students, faculty members, and fashion enthusiasts, who appreciated the creativity and craftsmanship of the participants. The event not only provided students with hands-on experience in designing and selling their products but also helped them gain confidence in their entrepreneurial abilities.

Hon'ble President, Sevalal Shikshan Sanstha Mr.Sanjayji Shende and Principal of Sevalal Mahila Mahavidyalaya Dr.(Mrs.) N.S. Dhoble appreciated the initiative taken by Dr. Mrs. N.A. Tiwade and Dr. Mrs. H.A.Padole and the whole Department of Textile and Clothing and Community College. Around 150 visitors visit for this exhibition. The सुई धागा exhibition was a great success, highlighting the talent and innovation of budding designers. It also reinforced the importance of practical learning in the fields of Textile and Clothing and fashion designing, encouraging students to pursue their creative aspirations.
