International Yoga Day was celebrated by the college on 21st June, 2021. On this occasion, an Inter-collegiate Yoga workshop on 'Yoga for Holistic Development' was jointly organized by Co-curricular and cultural committee and NSS unit of the college. This workshop was conducted for two days i.e. on 21st and 22nd June, 2021. Our Proud student of B.Sc. Sem VI and renowned Yoga Trainer Ms. Devyani Donge conducted this event as Yoga trainer. Devyani Donge is a Silver medalist in Asian Yoga Championship. She has achieved many prizes in state, national as well as international level Yoga competitions like gold medal in Online National Physical Fitness Challenge Championship organized by National Sports and Physical fitness board, Silver Medal in Online National Women Sports championship organized by Indian Women Olympic Association, etc. She was felicitated as 'Special Sport Personality' on the Teachers' Day-2021 by Physical Fitness and Sports Department, R.T.M. Nagpur University Nagpur. This workshop was open for all age group people. Family members of students also participated in this online event. Our alumni and some students from other colleges also participated in this workshop.

Day 1: 21st June 2021:

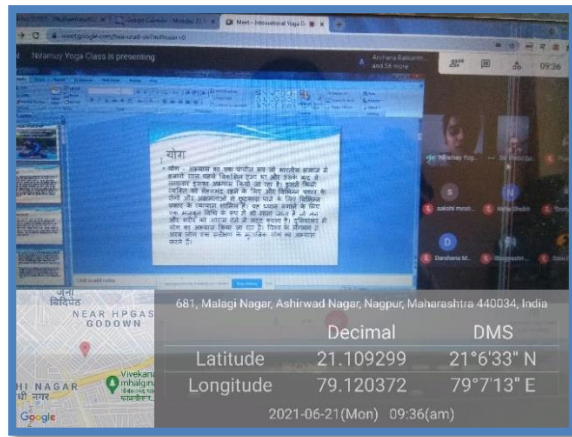

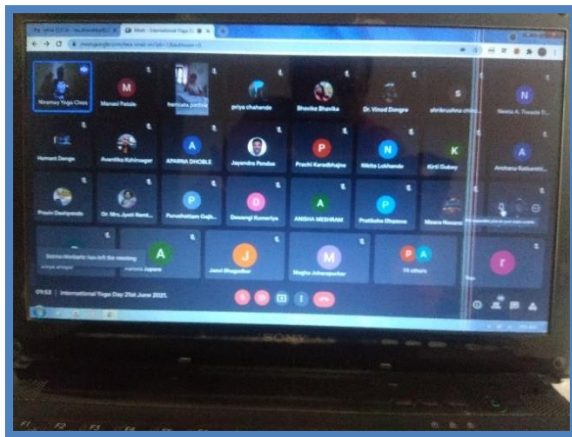

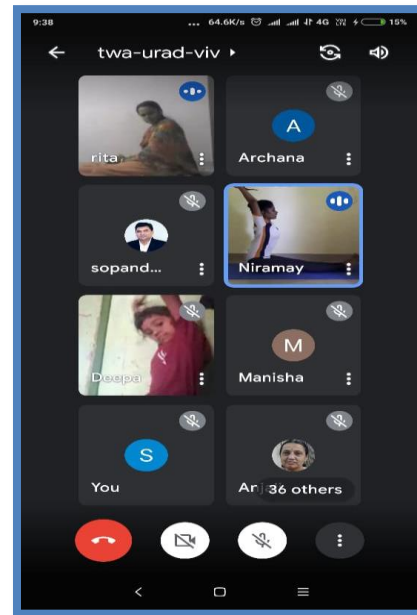

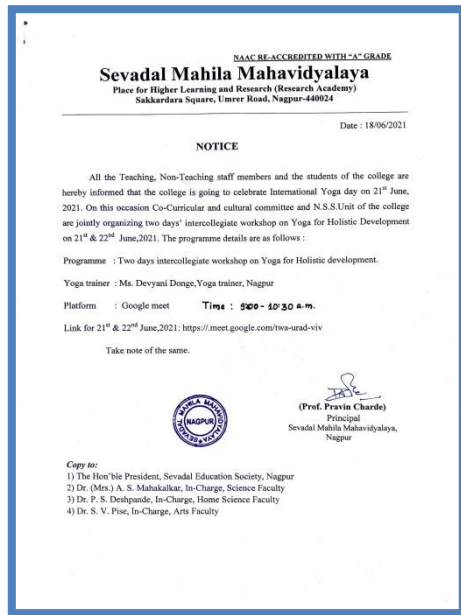

On the first day, i.e. 21st June, Devyani gave the presentation on Yoga. She explained in details about the yoga and its various aspects. In her presentation, she told about the ancient culture of yoga in India defined by Patanjali. Ashtanga yoga is Patanjali's classification of classical yoga as set out in his Yoga Sutras. She told about the eight limbs as Yama, Niyama, Asana, Pranayams, Pratyahara, Dharana, Dhyana and Samadhi. She told that these eight limbs form a sequence from the outer to the inner. She emphasized on how yogasana were performed since long and were proving beneficial for general health. She showed the images of various aasan and its impact on our body. She also gave the detail information regarding the various body parts and how yogasan helps to keep them healthy. Legs, hands, lumber, spine, neck and all parts are involved in various aasans which helps to keep them healthy. In the end, she also told about the Pranayam which are very important to keep the lungs healthy and how breathing exercises plays a crucial role in keeping lungs healthy. Especially, in this pandemic situation how pranayama can help us to improve our immunity power was elaborated. On first day, 70 participants joined this yoga session. Dr. Reeta Dhandekar, convener, cultural committee compared the programme.

Day 2: 22nd June 2021-

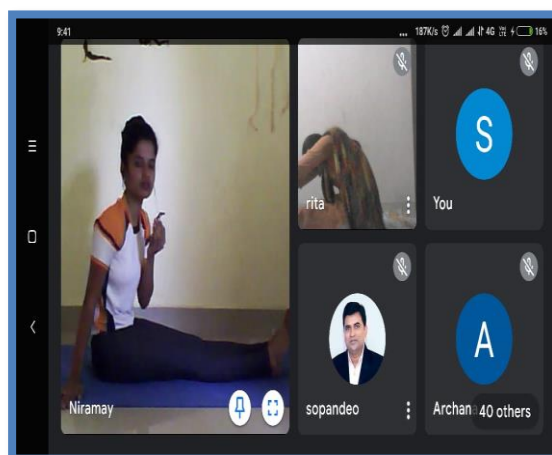

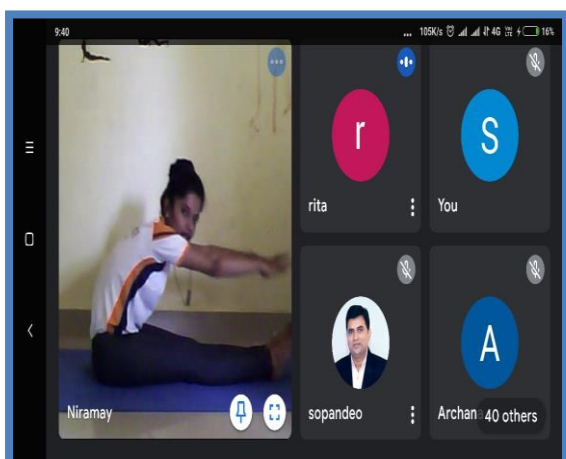

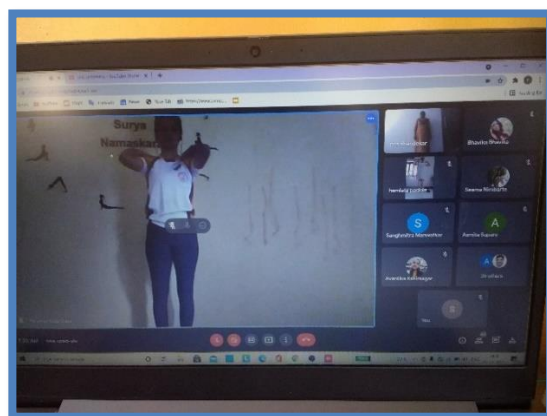

On the second day, Yogasan were performed by the participants. Devyani performed the yoga and all the participants followed her. This session began with prayer. Later on, one by one asanas were performed. She told that postures are important in modern yoga as exercise and all the postures must be steady and comfortable. Before and during the asan she told about the body parts which are involved in that particular aasan and how aasan helps to keep it healthy. Suryanamaskar was also performed. Each and every step of surynamaskar was elaborated. Praanayam was also done. She told that how each of the aasan helps us in individual's personal growth. Question answer session was also conducted at the end. Many participants asked their queries regarding the health issues. Total 50 students participated in the yoga session. Prof. P. M. Gajbhiye, NSS program officer proposed the vote of thanks.

Tree Plantation Campaign in Collaboration with Gayatri Parivar Trust, Nagpur : 04th September, 2021

Trees are the backbone of the mother Earth. The flora in the Nature contributes in environmental sustainability. The trees play an instrumental role in maintaining the Oxygen level in the atmosphere which is the Oxygen of human lives. The trees are important in the life of each element present on the Earth. Due to a rapid and fast paced industrial development, the forest cover on the Earth is depleting day by day which causes imbalance in environment. It is the need of the hour to take an environment friendly measures sustainable development. It is our prime responsibility to protect and conserve forest in general and trees in particular.

With this perspective, the National Service Scheme unit of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur initiated a tree plantation campaign in collaboration with Gayatri Parivar Trust, Nagpur. The NSS team along with the members and volunteers of Gayatri Parivar Trust planted many trees in Nagpur city. The volunteers not only planted trees but also installed iron tree guards in order to save tree from cattle. Most of the trees were planted in front of the houses of residents in Nagpur city who would look after, nurture, water and protect them. The programme was organised under the guidance of Prof. Pravin Charde, Principal, Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur.

Total grant of Rupees 5000/- was allocated for tree plantation campaign. The fund of Rupees 5000/- was handed over to the trustees of Gayatri Parivar Trust, Nagpur. The fund was utilized for the purchase of plants, purchase of iron bars and preparation of iron tree guards. The NSS unit of the college is very thankful to Hon'ble Prof. Pravin Charde, Principal, Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur for his support and guidance in order to carry out this activity successfully. The Programme officer of college NSS unit and the NSS team along with the volunteers worked tirelessly for this tree plantation campaign.

National Service Scheme Foundation Day : 24th September, 2021

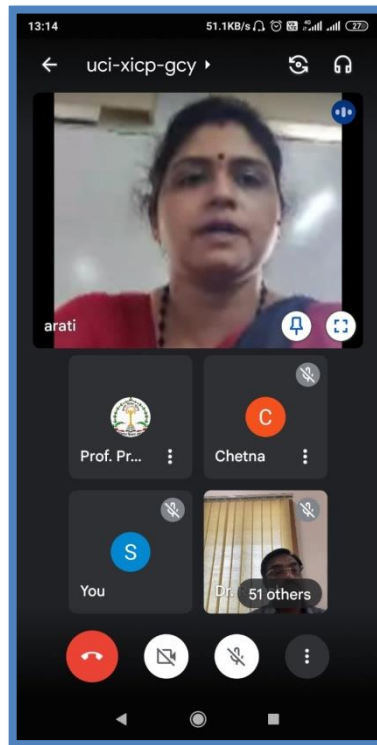

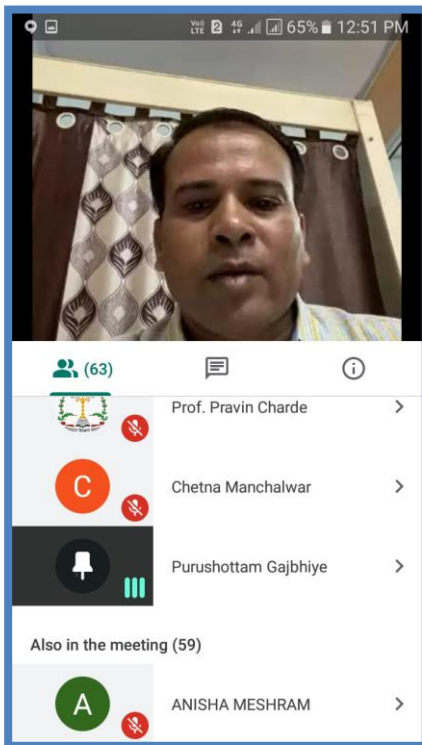

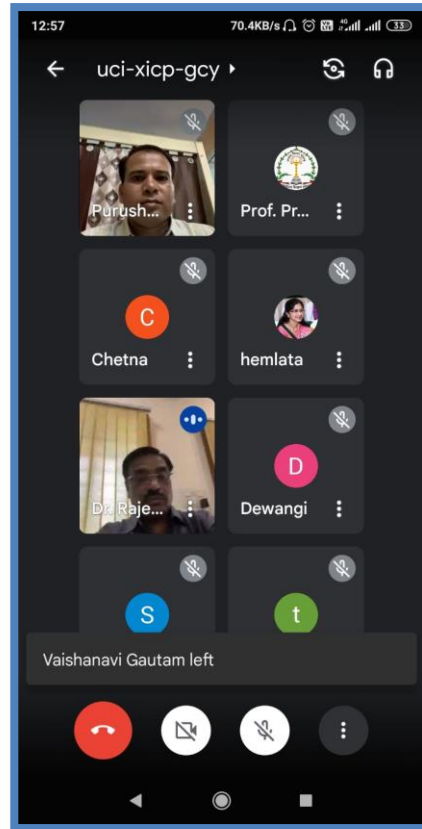

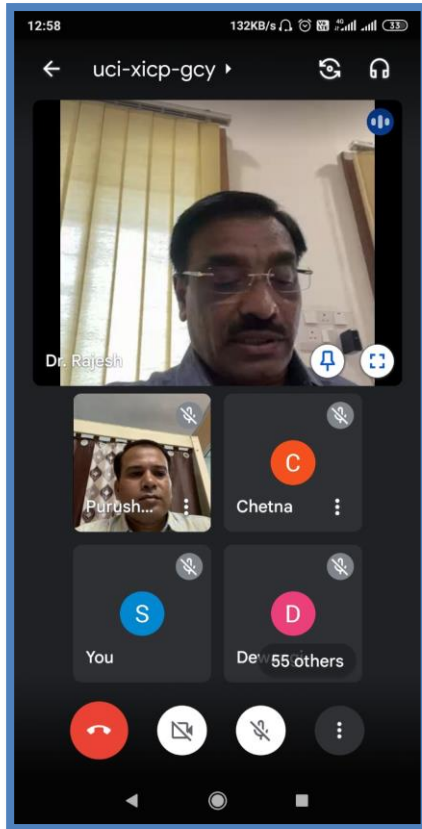

The National Service Scheme aims at developing student's personality through community services. It aims to inculcate the idea of social welfare in students and to provide service to society without bias. NSS volunteers work to ensure that everyone who is needy gets help to enhance their standard of living and lead a life of dignity. In doing so, volunteers learn from people in villages how to lead a good life despite a scarcity of resources. It also provides help in natural and man-made disasters by providing food, clothing and first aid to the disaster's victims.

In order to realise a service to humanity imparted by National Service Scheme and to mark the foundation day of NSS, the National Service Scheme unit of the college organised an online 'NSS Foundation Day' programme. The programme was organised on 'Google Meet' a virtual platform on dated 24th September, 2021 at 12.30 p.m. The google meet link <https://meet.google.com/uci-xicp-gcy> was shared among the participants for the programme. The chairperson of the programme was Hon'ble Prof. Pravin Charde, Principal, Sevalal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur. In his address, Hon'ble Principal sir provided an insight into the service the National Service Scheme has imparted to the society and the nation. He further said that the National Service Scheme strives to strengthen the youth of the country by organising various social, cultural and educational programmes. At college level, the NSS inculcates a sense of social responsibility and a sense of service to humanity among the students.

On this occasion, Dr. Rajesh Gadewar, Faculty, Home Science of the college also expressed his views on the role played by NSS in strengthening the nation. Mr. Purushottam M. Gajbhiye, Programme officer, NSS college unit compared the programme and Dr. Arti Duragkar, Programme Officer, NSS college unit proposed vote of thanks. Artificial Nests for Birds Project: 15th January, 2022

The National Service Scheme unit, under the guidance of Prof. Pravin Charde, Hon'ble Principal, Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur under Sevadal Education Society, Nagpur has initiated 'Artificial Nests for Birds' Project as a measure to pay back the environment in particular and the society in general. As a humanitarian act of kindness towards birds, the NSS unit launched this campaign through a compassionate participation from all the stakeholders of the college such as the teaching, non-teaching staff members and the students. The donors donated newspaper scraps, old practical records, worn out books and glass bottles from the laboratories of the college. The quotations for the purchase of these scrap materials were invited from various scrap vendors and these scrap materials were sold to the respective winning bidder, R.R. Traders, Nagpur. The fund of Rs. 22800/- was generated under this project. This fund was used to purchase the material for the preparation of artificial nests for birds.

Under the project 'Save Bird Save Nature', manmade bird nests have been installed since commencement at various places in University Campus, Gorewada International Park, College Campus, residential city area, College Hostel, Narsala (2nd Premises) and Bahadura village. After placing bird nests at various points, college generated fund for the project with the collaboration of college NSS unit.

Special drive to collect scrap newspapers and used books from the students was initiated and fund was raised for getting grain, feeding pans and water bowls. Grain feeding pans and water bowls were placed at different places. The drive proved very helpful for the birds.

Installation of Artificial Nests for Birds:

Post availability of artificial nests, feeding pans and water bowls, the biggest problem was installing them at various places. In order to address the issue, college NSS Unit volunteers were pressed in. With the help of NSS volunteers, artificial nests, feeding pans and water bowls were installed across the city and nearby areas i.e. Narsala and Bahadura.

The National Service Scheme unit of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur is very grateful to each and every stakeholder and donor for their wholehearted participation in this campaign towards the conservation of flora and fauna in the environment. At last but not the least, the National Service Scheme unit is especially thankful to Hon'ble Prof. Pravin Charde, Principal, Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur.

Conservation of Santaji Jagnade Maharaj Statue and Memorial and Cleanliness of Premises : 01st March, 2022

The department of National Service Scheme, Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur and Nagpur Municipal Corporation, Nagpur signed a Memorandum of Understanding for the conservation of statues and memorials of renowned personalities and saints and cleanliness of memorials in Nagpur city.

According to the directions received from Hon'ble Director, National Service Scheme, Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur on 28th February, 2022, the affiliated college in Nagpur city under the Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur have been shouldered upon the responsibility of conservation of statues and memorials and maintenance of the premises. The colleges had to assign a Programme Office and seven volunteers from college NSS unit who would maintain cleanliness of the premises of statues and memorials of distinguished personalities and saints on every Wednesday of a week.

The National Service Scheme unit of Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur has been shouldered on the responsibility of conservation of Santaji Jagnade Maharaj statue at Jagnade Square, Nandanwan, Nagpur and cleanliness of nearby premises around the mamorial. The National Service Scheme unit of the college acted promptly on these guidelines and Mr. Purushottam Gajbhiye, Programme Officer, college NSS unit, Dr. Girish Kawale, Member, College NSS unit and seven NSS volunteers launched a cleanliness drive at Santaji Jagnade Maharaj memorial and maintained cleanliness of the premises on every Wednesday in a week.

While maintaining cleanliness at Santaji Jagnade Maharaj memorial, the NSS team and NSS volunteers encountered numerous problems. The NSS team would sweep the premises and clean the statue of Santaji Jagnade Maharaj at Jagnade Square, Nagpur. But to their surprise, they would find used plastic water bottles, worn-out clothes and papers thrown by people. The NSS team would again clean the premises and Santaji Jagnade Maharaj statue.

The NSS team and volunteers were very enthusiastic to counter the challenges posed by the time and worked hard to achieve a desired goal.

Plastic Eradication and Cleanliness Campaign at Raj Bhavan, Nagpur :
16th April, 2022

Sevadal Education Society' Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur is always at forefront in initiating eco-friendly drives in order to conserve the flora and fauna in the Nature. Under the NAAC criteria VII and National Service Scheme Unit of the college, Plastic Eradication and Cleanliness Campaign was organised at Rajbhavan, Nagpur on dated 16th April, 2022.

The campaign aimed at cleaning and plastic eradication of the premises at Rajbhavan, Nagpur. Moreover, the cleanliness drive of water bodies of the premises was also undertaken. The NAAC criteria VII members and the members of National Service Scheme unit along with the volunteers of the college participated in this campaign.

Water bodies constitute the major part in maintaining natural habitat for flora and fauna. In the recent time, due to the apathy shown by the human beings, water bodies have been shrinking. In order to maintain them to its true form, it is highly necessary to clean them time to time and remove the unwanted weeds grown in and around it.

Taking cognizance of the prevailing scenario, College NSS unit has taken a step ahead to maintain the water bodies of Rajbhavan. Accordingly, at the behest of Hon'ble Principal Sir, Mr. Purushottam Gajbhiye, NSS Programme Office, all the NSS staff members and 48 NSS volunteers cleaned the water bodies located at the Rajbhavan. Weeds and garbage removed and made it clean.

Hon'ble Prof. Pravin Charde, Principal, Sevadal Mahila Mahavidyalaya also paid visit to Rajbhavan and also participated in the campaign.

More than 60 volunteers participated in the campaign and contributed to the cleaning of the premises. Glass bottles, plastic and waste papers were collected in this drive.

Academic Session (2021-2022)

Venue : Grampanchayat, Bahadura, Dist. Nagpur

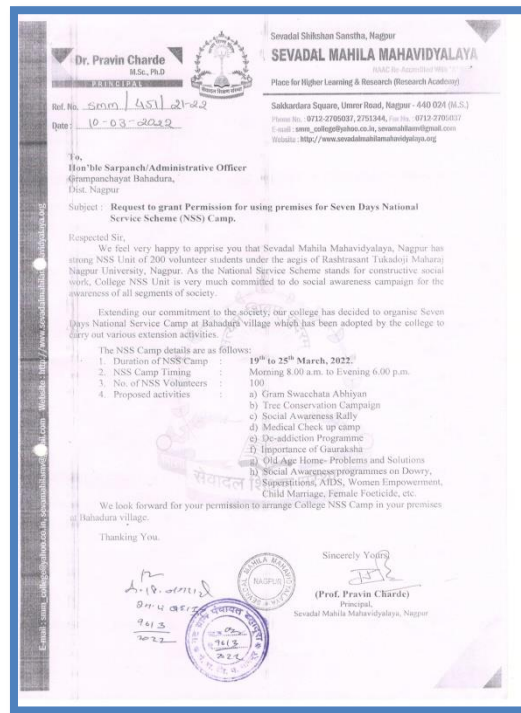

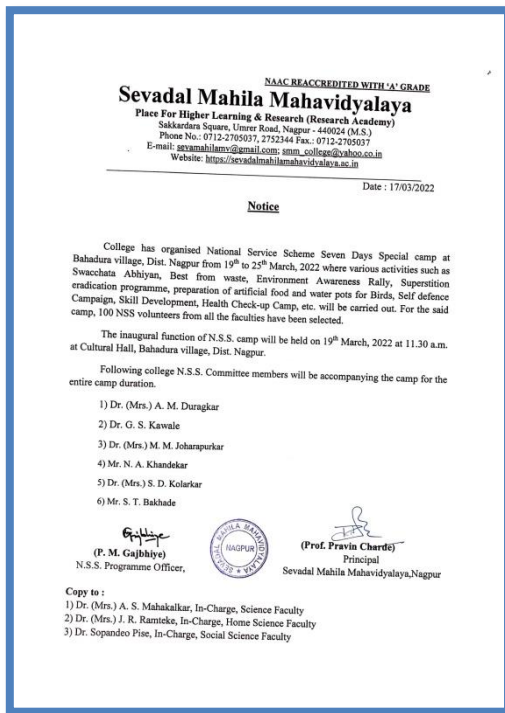

Duration of Camp : 19th March, 2022 to 25th March, 2022

Despite of many regular activities undertaken during the academic session 2021-2022, The National Service Scheme unit of Sevadal Mahiala Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur under Sevadal Education Society, Nagpur organised Seven Days Special Camp at Gat Grampanchayat premises at village Bahadura, District Nagpur. The Bahadura village is situated at the South of Nagpur city. It is one the largest villages in the Vidarbha region in Maharashtra state. The approximate population of the village is 4000. The Bahadura village is six kilometres away from the Nagpur city and thus has a rural as well as urban demography. The prominent population of the village is agrarian but as this village is in the vicinity of Nagpur city, most of the residents have set up their businesses in the village. The livelihood of the people of this village is dependent on agricultural as well as industrial economy. Gram Panchayat is the governing body of the village. Some of the welfare schemes are implemented in the village. These are as follows:

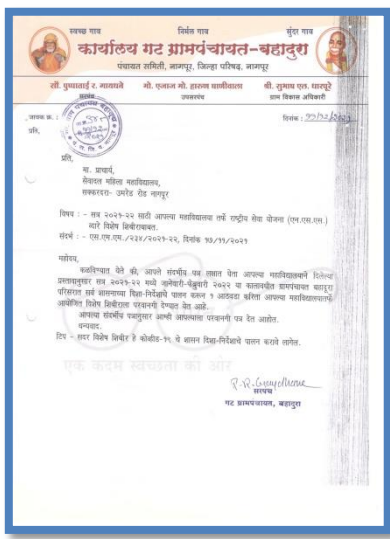

- 1) Skill Development Programmes
- 2) Aam Aadmi Bima Yojana
- 3) Nation Family Welfare Scheme
- 4) District Rural Development Scheme
- 5) Integrated Children Welfare Scheme

Mrs. Pushpatai Gaidhane is the Head of Bahadura village since three years. She spearheaded many social, economic, cultural and educational projects in the village such as Road Development, Electricity, Water, sanitization, etc. She was instrumental in the development of roads in the village and health and hygiene. Shri Narendraji Nadurkar, the most accessible and co-operative person is the boon of the village. He is always ready to help and figure the things out. The National Service Scheme unit of the college is indebted to his timely support and guidance Narsala village. Hon'ble Shri Chandrashekhar Bawankule, Minister, Ministry of Energy, Maharashtra also paid many visits to the village. Shri Subhashji

Dharpure, the Rural Development Officer of Bahadura village co-operated and helped many times the NSS unit of the college successful organisation of the camp in the village.
